Thesis Title	The extent of water distribution efficiency in secondary school in the city
Year	2009
Abstract	The study aimed to reveal the extent of water distribution efficiency in secondary school in the city of Baghdad as fairness distributing the services is considered one of the major requirements that would help in achieving the ideal distribution to various service areas in the city. Concentration is therefore been made on the geographical distribution to these schools on the level of quarter and residential areas in Baghdad for the academic 2007/2008.
