

University of Baghdad

College Name	The college of education for women
Department	History
Full Name as written in Passport	Bahja Ali Muhammed
e-mail	arabic.nation@yahoo.com
Career	<input type="radio"/> Assistant Lecturer	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Lecturer	<input type="radio"/> Assistant Professor
	<input type="radio"/> Professor
	<input checked="" type="radio"/> PHD	PhD
Thesis Title	Formulation of truces treaties between moslems and people of the conquered cities from (17-35 a.h./631-655ac)
Year	2009
Abstract	The thesis tackled the formulation of truces treaties between Moslems and people of the conquered cities from 17-35 a.h./631-655 ac). The theme of study was chosen as it encompasses the political, economical and religious study followed in the formulation of treaties between Moslems and people of the conquered cities. The formulation of treaties require the agreement of both conflicting parties , signature of witnesses, accuracy of writing the items, and the scrunity of the contents in all possibilities. Therefore, the research reuiqres to know the details and stuying them. In addition to that, it is related to the sfety and truth of the items of the treay. The timeline of the study (17-35 a.h), was the period which has witnessed the Islamic conquests during the era of Omar Bin Al-Khattab and Othman Bin 'Afan. It was the period that witnessed the Islamic creeping eastwards. The early Muslims cared for the strategy of conquering the eastern regions of the Islamic world, through spreading Islamic doctrine there. They also through that this would add them a logistic dimension to obtain defense in the Arab-Islamic territories such as Mecca, Medina, Basrah and Kufa. The conquest of Persia is regarded as a significant Islamic achievement to be indicated. It referred to the bravery and warlike character of Muslims. They formulation of treaties with the people living in Persia.

The study was divided into an introduction, seven chapters according to the theme.

The introduction included a general description of Persia before Islamic conquest.

The second chapter includes the geography of Persia and of conquest.

The second chapter: this includes many inquiries in treaties and the cities of the middle of Persia.

The third chapter includes the treaties with middle and south of Persia.

The fourth chapter includes two inquiries; the first about the geography of northern cities and the second about the conquests.

The Fifth Chapter includes the treaties with northern cities of Persia with single party.

The sixth chapter includes the treaties with northern cities of Persia with multi parties.

The seventh chapter includes the treaties includes the treaties with northern cities of Persia which includes meaning.

The study depended on many books such as old and modern references, in addition to Persian books and foreign. Also, the study used theses and periodical..