Thesis Title	Inferemces speakers Quranic text and their differemces
Year	2011
Abstract	The Koran text is the spring of all human thoughts in general and the Islamic ones in particular . it covers all criteria and princinciples that are lightening every thing and guiding the minds into the summit level of knowledge . it explains every thing, having no contrast and can not be increased or decreased. Moreover it is the spring of inferences , base of all ideas and start point of all regional beliefs. Therefore, I would like to write on this field and be acquainted with the approach applied by the users of the Koran text to prove their inferences. The thesis is divided into abstract, introduction and two chapters in the introduction I explain the meaning of "inference" in both language and idiom.
