Jose Maria Narvaez a Spaniard, arrived at the area through the route lead by the ocean in 1791.

It was joined as a city in April 1886 and was renamed to respect the English guide George Vancouver.

After a great fire the city recuperated, despite that, to turn into a well-off port, supported partially by the establishment of the Panama Canal in 1914.

By the 1930s Vancouver was Canada's significant Pacific coast port.

After World War II it formed into Canada's fundamental business center for exchange with Asia and the Pacific Rim.

By 1901 Vancouver was a clamoring city of 26,000 and it developed at an extraordinary rate.

By 1931 Vancouver had 246,000 residents.

After the Second World War Vancouver kept on developing quickly. The Museum of Anthropology was established in 1947. Additionally, in 1956 Capilano Suspension Bridge was remade.

Vancouver, Canada

Vancouver is called the

'best city in the world'.

Why? Is it the spectacular mountains?

The beautiful beaches?

The excellent shops and restaurants?

It's all of this and more!

Where is it?

Vancouver is in south-west Canada, next to the Pacific Ocean, 24 miles from the US border.

It is always a good time to visit Vancouver. The weather is never too cold or too hot. It is warm and sunny in summer, but it rains a lot in autumn and winter.

In spring, go skiing in the mountains in the morning and relax on the beach in the afternoon. In summer, go swimming, sailing or fishing, or go walking in North America's biggest park, Stanley Park. There are excellent shops in Yaletown, and there is also entertainment of every sort. Vancouver is the 'City of Festivals'.

Vancouver is a cosmopolitan city so there are French, Italian, Japanese, Indian, Thai, and Chinese restaurants. Vancouver's Chinatown is the second biggest in North America, after San Francisco. There is also a lot of delicious, fresh seafood.

In the busy city centre there are some excellent, expensive hotels. The beautiful Fairmont Hotel is $400 a night, but next to the sea there are a lot of cheap, comfortable hotels from $59 a night.

You don't need a car in Vancouver. There are slow, old trolley buses and there is the fast, modern Sky Train. Take the ferry – it is a great way to see the city.
